Re: Humphreys v. Vanbridge, an EPIC Company, et al.,
Case No. 2 SHP 2022, Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court

Dear Judge Leavitt:

We write on behalf of Plaintiff Rehabilitator and Defendants Dixon Hughes Goodman LLP and Edgewood to jointly request a brief extension of the current case management order.

This extension is requested because Plaintiff's expert requested a few extra days to prepare his report due to short time frame between the close of fact discovery and the current report deadline. In addition, the parties recognized that the current schedule did not provide sufficient time for Plaintiff's expert to be deposed before Defendants' expert reports are due. To accommodate these changes, the parties agreed that it is necessary to modify a few subsequent deadlines to maintain a workable cadence between submissions. These requested changes are reflected in the attached Proposed Amended Case Management Order.

Finally, to better accommodate out-of-town counsel and avoid weekend travel, the parties respectfully request that the pretrial conference, currently scheduled for Monday, January 11, 2027, be rescheduled by one day to Tuesday, January 12, 2027. This change is likewise reflected in the attached proposed order.

Respectfully,

Nicole D. Galli
