Re: Humphreys v. Vanbridge, an EPIC Company, et al.,
Case No. 2 SHP 2022, Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court

Dear Judge Leavitt:

The Rehabilitator and Dixon Hughes Goodman LLP (“DHG”) write to report on the status of the parties’ discussions pertaining to the Court’s Order from the August 19 hearing, and the parties’ September 2 Status Report.

The parties have agreed to a neutral third-party vendor (to be jointly retained at DHG’s expense), are working on agreed engagement terms, and will submit a proposed Order for the appointment of the vendor early next week.

The parties have also agreed, as a first step, to promptly collect the mailboxes of the four primary custodians and run test searches on those mailboxes in order to refine an agreed-upon set of search terms for those and other custodians. They are also working collaboratively to finalize the initial set of search terms that will be used.

DHG has agreed to collect and search (subject to continuing discussions and refinement of search terms) an additional six custodians beyond the four primary ones. The Rehabilitator agrees to those additional six custodians but has requested the collection and search of an additional four custodians. The parties are continuing to confer on the Rehabilitator’s requests and next steps.

The Honorable Mary Hannah Leavitt

The parties will submit another joint report on their progress by next Friday, September 11, 2026.

Respectfully,
