Re: Humphreys v. Vanbridge, an EPIC Company, et al.,
Case No. 2 SHP 2022, Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court

Dear Judge Leavitt:

In accordance with Your Honor's Order of August 19, 2026, the Rehabilitator and Dixon Hughes Goodman LLP ("Dixon") jointly submit this report on the status of the parties' discussions pertaining to the feasibility of additional searches for Dixon documents including the request for a third-party consultant to undertake the effort.

The parties have been conferring in accordance with the Court's Order. On Friday, Dixon's counsel advised Rehabilitator's counsel that Dixon's lead counsel misspoke during the hearing and Dixon does not currently have a third-party vendor that it is using for discovery in this case; rather, Dixon has an internal department called Firm Technology Services (referred to as "FTS"), which conducts the searches. Since then, the Rehabilitator has asked for additional information including how the searches were conducted and what tools were used. Dixon has provided some of the requested information and some additional information is still forthcoming.

The Rehabilitator has requested that Dixon use a third-party neutral vendor at Dixon's expense to gather forensic copies of the relevant repositories. Yesterday evening, the Rehabilitator provided Dixon with a list of over 33 additional custodians whose mailbox the Rehabilitator is requesting be searched, as well as additional search terms that it would like run on the four primary custodians mailboxes and documents, as well as for the additional custodians. We have requested a response to the Rehabilitator's proposal by close of business on August 27, 2026. Dixon is evaluating the request, and the parties have scheduled a conference call for tomorrow morning.

The Parties intend to continue their discussions and would like to report to Court on the status by next Wednesday, September 2, 2026.

Respectfully,
